Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in
Sociology and Community Studies
AND

Bachelor of Education (Honours)
Geography

Programme Aims

The Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Sociology and Community Studies and Bachelor of Education (Honours) (Geography) programme aims to promote academic synergy between sociology and geography by exploring the integration of geographical reasoning and sociological reasoning in the respective contexts of education, community betterment and tourism development. The programme pays substantial attention to the promotion of community-based tourism that integrates concerns about community cohesion, environmental sustainability and the use of technology. The programme will feature lectures, workshops, fieldwork, and internships, all of which contribute to both the academic development and career readiness of the prospective students. Graduates of the programme could participate in different employment sectors, including the teaching sector and the tourism sector.

Programme Features

- A teacher-training programme with multiple career possibilities
- Equipping students with experiential, field-based learning methods and pedagogical competency
- Empowering students within a holistic, mentor-supported learning environment
- Harnessing the sociology-geography nexus to build a more sustainable future

Experience Sharing

WONG Lai Shun Nelson 2024 Graduate
Bachelor of Education (Honours) (Geography)

“The University has provided me with various engaging opportunities to enhance my pedagogical skills and geographical knowledge. During the two Block Practices, I had the precious opportunities to interact with my peers and received useful advice and support to enhance my teaching style. The University has offered me an important opportunity to conduct academic research in the form of Honours Project. I am glad to have the holistic support of the University and hope to make use of the knowledge and skills developed in my university life to contribute the robust growth of geographical education.”

CHIN Yuet Shan Joyce 2024 Graduate
Bachelor of Social Sciences (Honours) in Sociology and Community Studies

“The Capstone Project is a hallmark feature of the University’s education. During the Capstone Project, I have the precious opportunity to develop a community-based experiential learning package for primary school students. The holistic academic support provided by the University not only enhanced our self-confidence but also laid a solid foundation for our career preparedness. Meanwhile, academic advisors and tutors in my university life provided us with many useful advice on the ways in which we could better equip ourselves for knowledge and skills essential to professional growth.”

Entrance Requirements

As the 2025/26 academic year is the beginning of the 2025/26 - 2027/28 triennium, the programmes to be offered in the 2025-28 triennium with allocation of UGC-funded places are still subject to the Government's approval.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information contained in this leaflet. Changes to any aspects of the programmes may be made from time to time as due to change of circumstances and the University reserves the right to revise any information contained in this leaflet as it deems fit without prior notice. The University accepts no liability for any loss or damage arising from any use or misuse of or reliance on any information contained in this leaflet.

Any aspect of the courses and course offerings (including, without limitation, the contents of the course and the manner in which the course is taught) may be subject to change at any time at the sole discretion of the University if necessary. Without limiting the generality of the University's discretion to revise the courses and course offerings, it is envisaged that changes may be required due to factors including staffing, enrolment levels, logistical arrangements, curriculum changes, and other factors caused by change of circumstances. Tuition fees, once paid, are non-refundable.

Students admitted into this programme are required to visit the Greater Bay Area (GBA) and/or other parts of Mainland China. The programme may also require students to participate in other non-local learning experience for completion of the programme. While the visits are subsidised, students are required to contribute part of the estimated cost of the visits ("students' contribution"), whereas any personal entertainment, meals expenses, travel document fee and personal insurance costs shall be at students' own expense. The estimated cost of the visits and students' contribution for students admitted to the coming cohort is yet to be available due to a variety of factors such as inflation of cost of the visits, trip duration, traveling expenses, the exchange rate, etc.

EdUHK is one of the teacher education providers in Hong Kong. Graduates of the University's teacher education programmes are eligible to apply to become fully qualified Registered Teachers. For registration as a teacher, graduates should approach the Teacher Registration Team of the Education Bureau (EDB) to submit applications directly. All applications will be independently assessed by the EDB which will consider, among other things, whether an applicant has been convicted of any criminal offence (including sex-related offences) in Hong Kong or elsewhere, or is involved in any ongoing criminal proceedings or investigations. For details, please browse the EDB's official website.
